

Ancestral Pathways

An intermediate-advanced workshop

Saturday, October 2nd, 10:00-5:00, Eugene, Oregon

With Colette Gardiner

As summer starts to slip away our attention is drawn inward. If we listen we can hear the inner voices of wisdom calling us, asking us to prepare for the time when the veil between the worlds is thin, urging us to release what we no longer need and to assess what we have achieved.

This is a time we can deepen and grow, spreading our magical roots wide and reaching for new information to help us in our magical work.

This is the time that the ancient ones call us, the ancestors of our blood and adopted families, known and unknown, our community visionaries and leaders who have passed on, cultural ancestors who passed down the skills we use in our work and community, as well as the mighty dead of the Craft who watch over our magical jobs.

Join us as we honor them and seek their help while we prepare for the dark time that is our cauldron of divination and regeneration. We'll also tap into the threads of our own past lifetimes of magical work in order to explore themes and jobs that are important in this life.

Since this is an intermediate to advanced workshop, participants need to know how to ground, cast and call, be able to keep themselves focused and in sacred space for the day and to be willing to step forward briefly into a small priestessing role if needed. This work is rooted in wiccan and faery traditions and is open to all genders.

Pre-registration required: Cost $20

No one will be turned away for lack of funds. This is possible due to the generous support of a private donor and the support and work of the Sophia Sanctuary. However you must pre-register in order to attend. Information on location, required preparation work and what to bring will be sent out once you have registered.

To register: Send a check or money order for $20, and your email address to:
